

GERMAN POLITICS AND SOCIETY

Editor: Jeffrey Anderson, Georgetown University

Managing Editor: Eric Langenbacher, Georgetown University

A joint publication of Georgetown University's BMW Center for German and European Studies and all North American universities featuring programs and centers of German and European studies associated with the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD).

German Politics and Society is a peer-reviewed journal published and distributed by Berghahn Journals. It is the only American publication that explores issues in modern Germany from the combined perspectives of the social sciences, history, and cultural studies.

The journal provides a forum for critical analysis and debate about politics, history, film, literature, visual arts, and popular culture in contemporary Germany. Every issue includes contributions by renowned scholars commenting on recent books about Germany.

Approaches to Teaching WORLD LITERATURE

Approaches to Teaching Grass's The Tin Drum

Edited by Monika Shafi

"Indispensible to any teacher preparing to tackle
Grass's challenging novel."

—Deutsch: Lehren und Lernen

The career of Günter Grass began dramatically in 1959, with the publication of his first novel.

The Tin Drum brought instant fame to the thirty-two-year-old author and led to his receiving the 1999 Nobel Prize in Literature.

Translated into dozens of languages, the novel has sold over four million copies worldwide. Its status as a major text of postwar German literature, however, has not diminished its provocative nature.

In both style and content, it continues to challenge scholars, teachers, and students.
