A REVIEW OF THEORY AND LITERARY CRITICISM

SubStance is important to you. But don't take our word for it...

"SubStance (is) one of the most influential journals of theory and criticism in the United States"
— Le Monde

"SubStance has acquired the reputation of an exciting and innovative journal and as a vehicle of French avant-garde thought."
— The Modern Language Journal

"(SubStance) has played an essential role in the elaboration of a new and rigorous thinking in philosophy, literature, psychoanalysis, the humanities, the discourse on art in general as much in the United States as in France. (SubStance) has become a work of reference for all those who study and create in these fields."
— Jacques Derrida

A review of theory and literary criticism, SubStance has a long-standing reputation for publishing innovative work on literature and culture. While its main focus has been on French literature and continental theory, the journal is known for its openness to original thinking in all the discourses that interact with literature, including philosophy, natural and social sciences, and the arts. Join the discerning readers of SubStance, who enjoy crossing borders and challenging limits.

Three issues per year.

George L. Mosse (1918–99) was one of the great historians of the twentieth century, forging a new historiography of culture that included brilliant insights about the roles of nationalism, fascism, racism, and sexuality. Mosse warned against the dangers inherent in conformity, showing how identity creation and ideological fervor can climax in intolerance and mass murder.

The Perils of Normalcy

George L. Mosse and the Remaking of Cultural History

Karel Plessini

January 2014
296 pp. 6 × 9

Paper ISBN 978-0-299-29634-6 $34.95
e-book ISBN 978-0-299-29633-9 $24.95

“Fortified by a treasure-trove of private papers and by reminiscences and critiques of scholars on both sides of the Atlantic, Karel Plessini has written a masterful account of how a gay Jewish refugee from Nazi Germany used his own lived experience to become a preeminent historian of his century’s traumas and transformations. George Mosse was a pioneer in historiography’s cultural turn, producing a cascade of books and new perspectives on nationalism, fascism, racism, religion, sexuality, war, and Judaism. Plessini traces both the genesis of Mosse’s individual works and judiciously assesses their impact on historiography with clarity and precision.”

U.S. English Language Teaching Assistantship Program in Austria, 2015–2016

Program Background and Objectives:

The Austrian-American Educational Commission (Fulbright Commission) manages the U.S. English Language Teaching Assistantship Program, which is funded by the Austrian Ministry of Education and Women's Affairs (Bundesministerium für Bildung und Frauen). This program is a fine opportunity for U.S. teaching assistants, who not only gain classroom experience, but also serve as linguistic and cultural ambassadors of the United States in secondary schools throughout Austria.

Applicant Qualifications:

Applicants must be U.S. citizens, have a bachelor's degree as a minimum requirement (or be completing one when they apply), and ideally be interested in careers in education or public service. Prospective teachers of foreign languages or TESOL and/or graduates with a documented interest in German and Austrian studies are particularly encouraged to apply. A working knowledge of German is required and necessary to facilitate on-site orientation and work.

Placement:

The Austrian Ministry of Education and Women's Affairs works together with provincial school boards to place approximately 130 U.S. teaching assistants at schools in all nine Austrian provinces. Applicants may request a city or region to which they wish to be assigned. However, the number of positions available in larger metropolitan areas, such as Vienna, Salzburg, Graz, and Innsbruck, is limited. Therefore, applicants also should be prepared to accept teaching positions in smaller communities. Flexibility enhances the prospects of placement.

Duration of Assignment:

U.S. teaching assistants are employed from October 1–May 31 of the school year. Incoming teaching assistants are required to attend an orientation seminar before beginning their assignments. U.S. teaching assistants with a superior record of performance may apply to have their assistantships extended for a second year.

Status and Remuneration of U.S. Teaching Assistants in Austria:

U.S. assistants teach 13 hours per week, usually at two different schools, under the supervision of licensed teachers and a "supervisor" assigned to keep track of their overall performance and trouble shoot, if need be. They receive a salary of ca. €1,397 per month for eight months, from which deductions are made for health and accident insurance (full coverage under the Austrian plans) and income tax. This results in a net income of approximately €1,105 per month. Teaching assistants do not receive any additional support for travel to Austria or for dependents.

Application:

Graduating seniors may apply, provided they have their degrees before assuming the positions. Complete applications are due January 15, 2015 for the following school year.

For further information on the program, application materials, and advice on application procedures, consult the Commission's website:

<http://www.usta-austria.at>

Please note that participants in this program are not Fulbright grantees. Students interested in applying for the Fulbright U.S. Student Program should consult the website of the Institute of International Education: www.iie.org
